A letter was received in this city yesterday from Dr. Bishop of Reno who is in San Francisco, stating that he had called on Mr. Coffin and found him improving considerably.

Judge Rising is a happy grandfather again, as will be seen by the following: Mrs. Bert Rising, (nee Gruber), of Seattle, presented her husband with a New Year's present in the shape of a bouncing boy baby.

The new passenger coach for the V. & T., made its first trip Sunday morning, going from Carson to Virginia. Several people went up in the car to see if they wanted any alterations made. No complaints were made however.

A Miss Sickle, of Chicago, who has been teaching the savages "how to shoot," has started out to get a conference with a red devil called Little Wound, in the hope of quelling the Indians disturbance. The APPEAL wishes her every success.

A number of the Tuscarora Guards, doubtless affected by the Indian scare, have sent in their resignations of late. They remind one of the Home Guard described by the Lieutenant Derby, as being "invincible in peace and invisible in war." Brave boys!—Times Review.

Somebody in this city has written a column communication to the Journal to let the Reno people know how Carson is getting along. It might all have been said in one fourth the space, and made just as newsy and a good deal more interesting.

Johnson Sides and Captain John interviewed Governor Colcord yesterday at some length. Both emphatically deny any relationship with the New-Tin-Messiah-with-Brass-Bell-Attached, as he is alluded to by Sides, and reiterate their covenant of peace with the pale-face.

A man was taken from the sidewalk to more comfortable quarters on Thursday by Constable Teeter. The offense being that his clothes weren't properly adjusted.—Truckee Republican.

If he had purchased his suspenders of Joe Platt he would have avoided trouble.

The Board of Pardons yesterday listened to the applications of Wm. Willoughby sentenced for life for murder in a second degree; Reynolds for burglary; St. Clair murder in the second degree and the Colwell brothers for assault, with intent to kill. The first was refused, the second granted and decision in the remaining cases reserved for to-day when other applications will be made.

BeVier—Doane.

MARRIED.—In this city January 12th 1891, at the residence of the bride's parents, by the Rev. Geo. R. Davis, Mr. Louis BeVier, of New York City, to Miss Julia Helen (Taddie) Doane of this city. No Cards.

The bride is the eldest daughter of County Clerk Doane, and is numbered among Carson's most estimable young ladies.

Mr. BeVier is well known throughout the State having been connected with Indian Schools at the Pyramid Reservation and in this county.

Both the contracting parties are to be congratulated, and the APPEAL wishes them a long life of felicity and prosperity.

In conjunction with the above this journal acknowledges cake and wine.

Making Himself Scarce.

F. McAfee, of Fish Lake, has turned the tables on the Piutes of that section, and Mr. Injun is making himself scarce. About a week ago a number of them called upon him and wanted to hear "paper talk" about the reported troubles. Taking up a paper he proceeded to make up a thrilling tale of Indian slaughter in the northern country, adding that the soldiers in large numbers would soon be in the valley, when Piute extermination would commence in earnest. The scare among the local Indians amounted to terror and they have skeddaddled in all directions.—Chloride Belt.

The Deadly Weed.

A young man named Campbell arrived at Prairie City, Or., a few weeks ago in a destitute condition. At length it was necessary for him to be taken to the County Hospital. He reached the place with a whole plug of tobacco in his stomach. While taking a bath he threw up his arms and was dead. Down at Vicksburg last week John Williams, a colored man, who had the toothache, took some nicotine from an old pipe and applied it to the cavity. Ten minutes later he fell from his bunk dead.

Dempsey-Fitzsimmons

The report is now pretty well authenticated that Jack Dempsey has left his training quarters for a day or two to give public exhibitions. At first it was not thought Dempsey would give his opponent this opportunity to "get on" to his style. In all probability these few public exhibitions are for Fitzsimmons' special benefit, and a ruse to mislead the Australian as to Dempsey's tactics.

The Law Ignored.

All the newspapers of Dubuque, Iowa, have received notice from Washington that they must stop printing the drawings of the prizes at the church fairs and other entertainments, but they are said to pay no heed to the warning.

A Washington dispatch has the following:

In the Senate Friday a resolution of rather an innocent appearance was quietly read and passed without debate or comment. It provided for the printing of 1000 maps of the route of the Nicaragua Canal and the contiguous country. There is no doubt that the Senate is preparing to present to the country a gigantic scheme involving millions of money and contemplating a stroke in diplomacy that will send this administration out with more than the usual amount of glory in the eyes of those who are adherents of the Monroe doctrine.

A measure that should be brought about by this session of the Legislature is the extending of the term of office of Assemblymen from two to four years. One term in the Legislature just about fits a man who goes there for the time to cope with the older members who are sent for several terms. The raw material sent to the Legislature every two years leaves the business in the hands of the Senate to a great extent. A second term member could be ready to begin business without delay in his second term and much more good could be accomplished.—Lyon County Times.

COAST NEWS.

Bruce Blessing, a fourteen year-old boy of East Portland, was accidentally shot Thursday by a younger brother. The bullet entered the eye, producing probably a fatal wound.

Samuel Brinker, a well-known man of Tacoma, attempted suicide last night on the steps of the residence of Postmaster Pague. Brinker's wife has left him on account of his dissipation.

John McKenzie, an employe of the Navy Yard, died in the street in Vallejo, Thursday, from heart disease. A Japanese caterer on board the San Francisco fell through an hatchway, and it is thought he cannot live.

Jack Conley, August Mills and two brothers named Van Cleve are under arrest on the charge of stealing cattle, slaughtering them and selling the meat in Seattle. For six months past hundreds of cattle mysteriously disappeared from the ranches and ranges within a radius of fifty miles of that city. Of late the loss have become so numerous that the cattlemen organized for the purpose of capturing the thieves.

The deed of a Fiend.

In June last an Indian named Blue Horn went hunting and trapping in the Beaver hill, near Fort Saskatchewan, accompanied by the eight year-old son of a Victoria Indian. On his return from the hunting trip to the camp he was surprised to find the boy not there.

An extended search failed to reveal the boy. Saturday a half breed from Beaver lake found in the woods about six miles east of Fort Saskatchewan, the skeleton of a child in a standing position, its arms stretched out and its wrists tied to two trees. From circumstances surrounding the affair it is evident that the lost boy was offered as a sacrifice to secure good luck in hunting by the Indians.
